Executive Assistant

Reports to: Executive Vice President
F.L.S.A.: Exempt
Last Revised: 4/29/19

Position: The Sacramento Metro Chamber is seeking a full-time Executive Assistant to join our expanding team. We are looking for an energetic, motivated individual who is eager to learn and grow with our company.

Qualifications:

- S/he is an assertive problem solver with excellent judgement who can create order, structure, and organization in a fast-paced climate.
- S/he is incredibly organized and handles logistics with ease. S/he loves to plan and create structure where it does not currently exist.
- S/he can balance structure with the inevitability of change and disruption to the plan and can “go with the flow” with positivity and adaptability. S/he is a natural problem solver and can jump into action with a great attitude, diffuse drama, and maintain professionalism at all times.
- S/he is loyal, and extremely trustworthy; s/he will hold information in the highest confidence and will communicate up all useful information.
- S/he can anticipate the needs of those s/he supports; s/he is proactive and resolves issues before they arise.
- S/he has a very high level of professionalism; this is the person who understands the ways executives expect to be supported and establishes relationships with external stakeholders and their support teams.
- S/he is an effective gate-keeper; this is the person who is protective of executive time and establishes a clear structure for prioritizing with ease.
- S/he sees all tasks through to completion; s/he is persistent by nature and knows how to get the information s/he needs.
- S/he is a total team player and is collaborative. S/he is not afraid to roll up her/his sleeves and do what it takes to create remarkable results for the better of the organization.
- S/he succeeds with little direction; can fill in general directional framework with pertinent details. S/he is an active listener who captures information the first time.
